AT FRASERS OF COLDHARBOUR

If you are currently planning your wedding and trying to decide which venue to choose - for the ceremony, the reception or for the whole day - then look no further.....

Frasers offers idyllic surroundings and a beautiful setting for the most important day of your life. Nestled at the end of a private drive on a traditional Kentish farm in the heart of the 'Garden of England' you will discover a secret 5-star venue.

We offer a bespoke approach to your wedding. Imagine yourself, your closest friends and family gathered around the table enjoying a wedding feast, freshly made on the day of your wedding using locally sourced seasonal produce. In the summer enjoy our delicious chocolate brownies or tart au citron accompanied by juicy Kentish strawberries and cream straight from the farm. Or in the winter months imagine tucking into sticky toffee pudding or homemade fruit crumble with lashings of custard.

Lisa and Jo will guide you effortlessly through the whole planning process, from the first time we meet until you're waving goodbye the morning after your wedding. We adore it if family members wish to contribute by working alongside our team of preferred suppliers - auntie's wedding cakes always taste the best!

The hardest decision will be which of our nine beautiful suites you and your guests will stay in. We have one of the most luxurious and lavish wedding suites in Kent! Our accommodation is situated in three period farm buildings, a traditional Ragstone Oast, a former stable block and a cart barn. The conversions have been carried out to the highest standard, providing five star gold accommodation yet maintaining all of their charm and character.

We are delighted to enclose our outline prices for your perusal but please contact us either at lisa@frasers-events.co.uk or 01233 756122. We would always rather meet you in person to discuss plans for your special day.
